PROJECT NAME: Apex Building , Maboneng
APPLICATION: Street Art

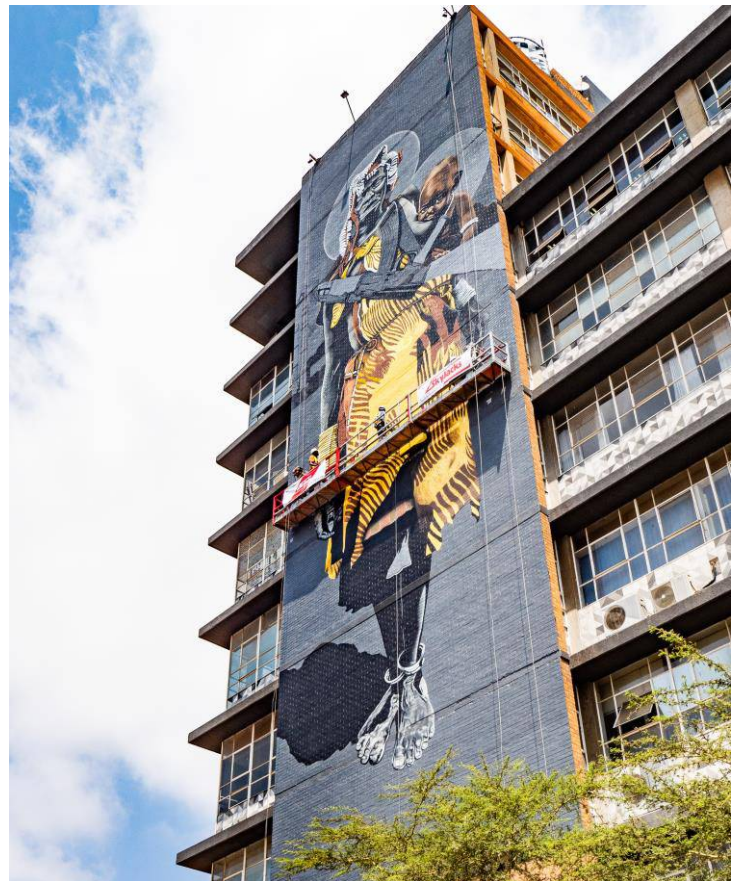

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

Graffiti artist Dbongz Mahlathi of Spaces Lifestyle and Design was commissioned to paint a large mural on the Axis building in the Maboneng Precinct of Johannesburg's CBD.

According to the artist, the mural is of a woman and child from the Mursi Tribe in Ethiopia and the inspiration behind it is to encourage unity, respect and harmony among people, despite different backgrounds and situations.

SkyJacks was selected by the building owners Admenet to provide access to the artist and installed a 9m standard platform using a counterweight suspension system placed on the roof of the building.
